Giraud Hope, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. I am over the age of eighteen (18) and otherwise competent to testify in a court of law. I have personal knowledge regarding the facts set forth below.

2. I was a Licensed Professional Counselor in Charlotte, North Carolina, until my license was summarily suspended on or about September 19, 2012, pursuant to an Order of Summary Suspension from the North Carolina Board of Licensed Professionals.

3. On January 13, 2013, I signed a Consent Order with the North Carolina Board of Licensed Professional Counselors that revoked my license for one year from September 19, 2012 ("the Order").

4. The Order required me to mail my license to the North Carolina Board of Licensed Professional Counselors.

5. While I was incarcerated, my wife had to vacate our home and she boxed up and moved our belongings. I believe that in that process, my license was either lost or accidentally discarded.

6. I have searched for my license since signing the Order on January 13, 2013, and I have been unable to find the license.

7. I do not have the license to return to the North Carolina Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and am submitting this Affidavit in lieu of the license itself.

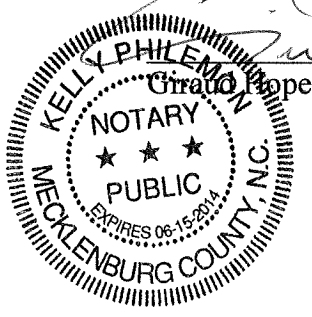

Further, the Affiant sayeth not.
